JOINT RESOLUTION

Recognizing the historic commitment of the United States to the recovery of and full accounting for Americans who are prisoners of war or in a missing status.

Whereas General Douglas MacArthur, the Allied commander for the Southwest Pacific area, including the Philippine Islands, committed forces under his command to make every effort, as quickly as possible, to liberate prisoner of war camps and internment camps as Allied forces began retaking territory;

Whereas in the fulfillment of that commitment, United States Army units, together with various Filipino guerilla groups, successfully conducted several operations that liberated thousands of innocent civilians, prisoners of war, and Filipino citizens;

Whereas in February 1945, elements of the 11th Airborne Division, particularly the 511th Parachute Infantry Regiment of that division, and the 672nd Amphibious Tractor Battalion conducted a particularly brave and daring mission behind enemy lines to rescue over 2,000 people at Los Banos internment camp; and

Whereas the United States has an historic commitment to the recovery of and full accounting for Americans who are prisoners of war or in a missing status: Now, therefore, be it
